Dear Brad,

With your support, the American Red Cross can provide relief for communities struck by extensive natural disasters like the recent earthquakes in Haiti. This is part of our global mission to help vulnerable people around the world overcome the devastation of disaster, complex humanitarian emergencies and life-threatening health conditions. On behalf of those we serve, thank you for your recent gift in support of our International Response Fund.

Currently, we are providing vital assistance to our partner society in Haiti. Our disaster response experts have joined our staff in Haiti and Red Cross volunteers from around the world to establish field hospitals, restore water and sanitation systems and distribute supplies.

In addition to disaster response, we focus on improving primary health care, restoring family links, and disseminating the guiding principles of international humanitarian law. We are grateful to have support from donors like you, which is critical to the humanitarian work of the American Red Cross in Haiti and around the world. For more information on our most recent international disaster responses, please visit www.redcross.org/.

Sincerely,

The American Red Cross
